

Citation information. in esse: English Studies in Albania. Volume 10, Issue 2, Page 103-15. ISSN 2078 – 7413.

Methods and Techniques in Teaching English as a Foreign Language in Primary Education<sup>1</sup>

Rashit EMINI,

South East European University-Tetovo, Republic of North Macedonia

Email: r.emini@seeu.edu.mk

Abstract

This article aimed to investigate the English language teaching methods and techniques that are used in EFL classrooms at “Hasan Prishtina” Primary School in the Municipality of Cair in Skopje, Republic of North Macedonia. Qualitative and quantitative research methods were used for data collection; that is, teaching and learning class observations were carried out, interviews with English teachers were conducted, and two questionnaires (pupil and teacher) were used. The aim of the research was to find out which ELT methods and techniques are most commonly used by the English teachers when teaching English in primary education. Moreover, it investigated their approach to creating a learning atmosphere that enables interaction and communication among pupils.

Keywords: English language teaching methods, techniques, approach, communication, learning atmosphere

---

<sup>1</sup> A version of this article was presented as a paper presentation at the third international conference on language, literary and cultural studies “Language, Culture and Community: 21st-Century Perspectives,” organized by the Department of Foreign Languages, University of Vlora “Ismail Qemali,” Albania, on 30 May 2018, in Vlora, Albania.